Dr. Jack Hawkins, Jr.
Chancellor
Troy University
216 Adams Administration Building
Troy, AL 36082

Dear Jack:

Thank you for four recent letters regarding change at your institution. The letter of November 14, 2006, notified the Commission of a new address for the Clarksville, Tennessee off-campus instructional site:

Troy University, Clarksville Site
399 Tiny Town Road
Clarksville, TN 37042

We accept your notification; what is the effective date of the change of address?

Your second letter of November 14, 2006, notified the Commission that the following programs will be offered at the specified sites:

1. Bachelor of Science in Computer Science degree program will be offered in Pensacola, FL beginning March 2007.
2. The Master of Public Administration degree program will be offered at Davis-Moahan AFB, Tucson, AZ, effective January 2007.

Since both the programs and the sites are approved, we accept your notification, require no additional information from you, and wish you well in these new ventures.

You wrote on November 29, 2006 (received in our offices on December 15, 2006), to notify the Commission that, effective March 2007, the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice degree program will be offered in Covington, Georgia. Since both the degree program and the site are approved, we accept your notification and require no additional information from you.

Your letter of November 30, 2006 (received in our offices on December 15, 2006), notified the Commission of your intent to offer, effective March 2007, the Master of Science in Counseling and Psychology at the Jacksonville, Florida site. Since both the program and the site are approved, we accept your notification and require no additional information from you.

We wish for you and your colleagues the happiest of new years!

Best regards,
