Course Number: CP 7794
Course Title: Field Project
Semester Hours: 3
Pre-requisite(s): Enrollment limited to Ed.S. students

Approved Delivery Models:
Course is delivered face-to-face.

Catalog Course Description:
An independent study of a problem of a practical nature which is encountered in a field setting. A proposal for study and a written report of the findings must be approved by the student’s advisory committee. The advisory committee will administer an oral examination covering the research findings. Enrollment limited to Ed. S. students.

Goals and Objectives of Course:
The Educational Specialist Degree Program is designed to provide a quality, eclectic, academic program that emphasizes meaningful and practical learning experiences in preparing students to be innovative, informed, reflective decision-makers.

This course provides advanced graduate students with the opportunity to complete a research project under the supervision of a chairperson and committee. The student will:

1. Study a specific area related to a counseling problem or situation which is of practical interest, and
2. Demonstrate and apply knowledge of research methods to study a specific area related to school counseling.

Approved Text(s): None

Other Materials: None

Content: Students select a specific area related to school counseling. Students design a project (i.e., counseling handbook or program curriculum) which addresses the area. Does not require statistical analysis of data.

Method of Instruction: Student and committee work collaboratively toward completion of field project.

Laboratory Experiences: None
Course Requirements: Student must write and gain approval of field project proposal, and then write up field project.

Evaluation: Chair and committee evaluate field project proposal and field project.

Additional Services:

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT: Students with disabilities, or those who suspect they have a disability, must register with the Disability Services Coordinator in order to receive accommodations. Students currently registered with the Disability Services Office are required to present their Disability Services Accommodation Letter to each faculty member at the beginning of each term. If you have any questions, contact the Disability Services Coordinator.

Absence Policy:
In registering for classes at the university students accept responsibility for attending scheduled class meetings, completing assignments on time, and contributing to class discussion and exploration of ideas.

In severe cases of inclement weather or other emergency conditions, the Office of Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost will announce cancellation of classes through the local and regional media as well as through the University’s web site.

Academic Misconduct:
Students should refer to the Standards of Conduct section of the Oracle, the student handbook, for policies regarding misconduct.

Other pertinent information relating to specialization requirement:

June 2008