Thank you for your interest in Troy University’s English Language Center (ELC). Troy University is a global University with more than 60 campuses and sites in 16 U.S. states, 12 foreign countries and Guam. The ELC is located on the Atlanta Site of Troy University in the northern suburb of Dunwoody, Georgia.

ELC’s programs specialize in academic English, targeted towards students interested in pursuing higher education in the United States. Through diverse study and courses, we provide students with opportunities to improve and fine-tune English speaking, listening and writing skills. Our graduates are well prepared to attend Troy University’s undergraduate and graduate schools. The ELC curriculum is also well suited for short-term or practical study experiences.

Troy University is dedicated to providing our students with a variety of learning experiences that include cultural, linguistic, social and recreational activities. TROY students have the opportunity to work individually with instructors, as well as attend a wide variety of off-campus activities with fellow students.
